

Putting The Brakes On Time

Ty Herndon

I'm cuttin' off the telephone
You unplug the TV
At the rate life's passin' us by
We can't take the time to breathe I know you can't turn time around
But maybe there's a way to slow it down Sippin' iced tea from a backporch swing
Layin' by a river as the wold runs by
Makin' sweet love while the mockingbird sings
We can try, puttin' the brakes on time When did we last have a heart to heart talk?
Over a glass of wine
Or stop and watch the grass grow
Or smell a honeysuckle vine We can't put the sand back in the hourglass
But we can hold each other, baby
And make this weekend last Sippin' iced tea from a backporch swing
Layin' by a river as the wold runs by
Makin' sweet love while the mockingbird sings
You and I puttin' the brakes on time
Puttin' the brakes on time, yeah, yeah, yeah We've been sippin' iced tea from the backporch swing
Lay down by the river as the world runs by
Make sweet love while the mockingbird sings
Can't stop the clock but we can't sure enough try
To put the brakes, put the brakes on time
To put the brakes, put the brakes on time We can slow it down, baby
And put the brakes on time
We can slow it down, baby
And put the brakes on time, yeah
