

Pretty Young Girl

Bad Boys Blue

I know life is different to you
First love can be frightening that's true
But take me as your brother and your friend
And take me as your lover and your man Pretty young girl of my mind
How I wish you to be mine
Girl, you're no child anymore Pretty young girl of my mind
Don't you know? Know I can't hide
Can't hide my feelings
You're my girl and you're sixteen Don't know, is it wrong, is it right?
Sweet girl, I wanna love you tonight
So take me as your brother and your friend
But first of all, I wanna be your man Pretty young girl of my mind
How I wish you to be mine
Girl you're no child anymore Pretty young girl of my mind
Don't you know, know I can't hide
Can't hide my feelings
You're my girl and you're sixteen Pretty young girl of my mind
How I wish you to be mine
Girl you're no child anymore Pretty young girl of my mind
Don't you know, know I can't hide
Can't hide my feelings
You're my girl and you're sixteen
