Numbers

DIRTY RADIO

Turn up, looking like you're single
Just living, creatures of the night
I'm looking only cause I'm human
You're blind everyone in sightNothing was the same
Nothing, nothing was the same
Looking like you fell from the sky
Numbers in my head
Numbers, numbers in my head
Got me acting reckless tonight
You got my number, don't make me wait
You're making me want it
You better get on it
You got my number, don't make me wait
You're making me want it
You better get on it
You don't even got a reason to be holding back
You're making me want it
You better get on it
You got my number, don't make me wait
You're making me want it
You better get on itYou ready? What's the point in waiting?
Just cut up, hanging on your light
The [?] never really sorry
Only melody on my mind
Nothing was the same
Nothing, nothing was the same
Looking like you fell from the sky
Numbers in my head
Numbers, numbers in my head
Got me acting reckless tonightYou got my number, don't make me wait
You're making me want it
You better get on it
You got my number, don't make me wait
You're making me want it
You better get on it
You don't even got a reason to be holding back
You're making me want it
You better get on it
You got my number, don't make me wait

You're making me want it
You better get on itYou got my number, don't make me wait
You're making me want it
You better get on it
You got my number, don't make me wait
You're making me want it
You better get on itYou got my number, don't make me wait
You're making me want it
You better get on it
You got my number, don't make me wait
You're making me want it
You better get on itYou don't even got a reason
You don't even got a reason
You don't even got a reason to hold back
You don't even got a reason
You don't even got a reason
You don't even need a reason to hold back
