

Girl

Ben Folds

Yeah, yeah Girl, it's been a long time
Since we had it going on that way
Feelin's getting stronger each and every day Wake up, oh yeah, I can feel you
But you're not there, holdin' on to thin air
'Cause you're dreamin' of somebody else We're sexed-up, tongues curled
We used to have it goin' on, girl
Washed our worries from this hard world
Now you're dreaming of somebody else Girl, it's been a long time
Since we had it going on that way
Feelin's getting stronger each and every day Girl, it's been a long time
Since we had it going on that way
Feelin's getting stronger each and every day And if you call me back, girl
I'll be there, I'll be there
Yeah, I will be your man I'll be there, I'll be there
Well, you may lie your ass off [unverified]
You weren't there, you weren't there, girl You say, "The longer we go
The more your friends freak out"
Well you oughta know
I wouldn't stand between you But by deafness screams sometimes
My heart has gravity sickness
I just don't know, is it me, or is it you?
What are you trying to do? Girl, it's been a long time
Since we had it going on that way
Feelin's getting stronger each and every day Girl, it's been a long time
Since we had it going on that way
And it's getting stronger each and every day
