Beautiful

Daniel Johnson

There's so much to say about you oh God
You are beautiful to me
You are beautiful to me
My heart beats just what I'm feeling oh God
You are beautiful to me
You are beautifulI can see Your glowing face
Not by sight but by my faith
Your presence keeps me so amazed
I hear You singing over me
Songs of life and liberty
It brings my spirit to its kneesThere's so much to say about You oh God
You are beautiful to me
You are beautiful to me
My heart beats just what I'm feeling oh God
You are beautiful to me
You are beautifulThis air i breathe possessed by love
Goes deep down and expands my thoughts
Its transformed and it turned worship
Joy and pleasure beside, You stand
The grace that flows from Your Mighty Hand
It's freely given to all manYou're all I wanna be
I'll run to You
Keep making me new
Perfect in all of Your ways
Your name is great
Forever You reign
With power, authority
You live inside of me
You stay here, you live hereThere's so much to say about You oh God
You are beautiful to me
You are beautiful to me
My heart beats just what I'm feeling oh God
You are beautiful to meYou're beautiful
Loving and You're Merciful
Eternal God and Father
You will always be my Lord x4
You're
