Juliet

Army of Freshmen

She's an angel in the hallway, in the stands and at the mall

I see her everywhere I go, she don't see me at all

I serenade her cell phone but I never hit send

I'd ask for some advice but I don't have any friendsI am the one on IM with the thirty-seven names

Tonight it's Captain Elvis, lately he's been on his game

I'm taking up karate and I'm saving for a tat

'Cause anyone who's anyone knows girls are into that She's so cold, freezing like disco

Outlook is so-so, Romeo

I'm burning, covered in blisters

Wish I could kiss her, Juliet, JulietShe's the picture of perfection, I'm a legend in my mind

They say that only fools rush in, well, I'm the first in line

I'm working on my battle plan and wishing on a star

I doubt that she'd go out with me 'cause I don't have a carThat I can drive around in circles, does she love me?

Does she not?

Either way it doesn't matter 'cause I'm giving it a shot

It's not like if she shoots me down, it's headline breaking news

'Cause I may be a loser, but I don't have much to loseWide-eyed, tongue-tied, drama like ShakespeareShe's so cold, freezing like disco

Outlook is so-so. Romeo

I'm burning, covered in blisters

Wish I could kiss her, Juliet, JulietI know who she is and I know who I'm not

And I know what it takes and it's not what I got

But if you start from the heart and you end with a smile

Miracles happen every once and whileShe's so cold, freezing like disco

Outlook is so-soShe's so cold, freezing like disco

Outlook is so-so, Romeo

I'm burning, covered in blisters

Wish I could kiss her, Juliet, Juliet

Juliet, Juliet Wide-eyed, tongue-tied, drama like Shakespeare

Lyrics provided by

https://damnlyrics.com/