Giles

Unearth

Smother his life, the words cut right to the heart
Disease and threaten my family name
An epic stand is made, condemned
I will not plead, I will not pleadDamned to the beast of torment
Damned by the beast within us allCrushed by the fear
More stone, more stone
More weight for CoreyNot one step forth could capture a mission of guilt
By law, avoids death on gallows hill
Through time, his fight will martyr my name
My soul free of a hereticCrushed by the fear
More stone, more stone
More weight for CoreyCourt of ayer and terminer
Leave me my rightful land
Court of ayer and terminer
Leave me my rightful land
To stow in my heart, leave to my sonsPeine forte et dure is called
An effort to collapse belief has failed
And surely will die with me
An epic stand is made, condemned
I will not plead, I will not pleadDamned to the beast of torment
Damned by the beast within us allRectify my name
Rectify my name
Rectify my name
Rectify my name
Rectify my name
