

Start To Break

Atreyu

Hunted by mindless beasts
Haunted by my desire
To create and destroy
To defy with a smile Everyday is stick and move
Either way they're after you
Mediocre their soulless lives
They live for nothing
They have no pride
They're always after me Pleading eyes & vacant arms
They're always draining me
Needy souls, empty hearts
Can't pull the wool over my eyes
I can still see I'm so tired but I won't stop moving
Fearful, my humanity is running away
I'm not foolish I won't stop dreaming
I know that I can be better than I am today
The pressure builds and I'm starting to break
I'm so tired but I won't stop moving
Fearful, my humanity is running away Away, far from here
From all the cowards and fear
Far away, from here
From all the cowards and fear The push beyond ones self
To live in the unknown
The push beyond ones self
To live in the unknown
Can't pull the wool over my eyes
I can still see
Can't pull the wool over my eyes
You can't blind me I'm so tired but I won't stop moving
Fearful, my humanity is running away
I'm not foolish I won't stop dreaming
I know that I can be better than I am today
The pressure builds and I'm starting to break
I'm so tired but I won't stop moving
Fearful, my humanity is running away Go! If you've never been tested
Then you'll never see
What lives inside of you
Is worth more than anything
If you've never been tested

Then you'll never see
What lives inside of you
Is worth more than anything And at that moment
When I doubt myself
I pick my feet up
And I hit the ground I'm so tired but I won't stop moving
Fearful, my humanity is running away
I'm not foolish I won't stop dreaming
I know that I can be better than I am today
The pressure builds and I'm starting to break
I'm so tired but I won't stop moving
Fearful, my humanity is running away
Away!
Running away!
