A Woman's Place

Gilbert O'Sullivan

I may be old fashioned
So what if I am
I'm not any different
To any other manI'm not one of those
Who look for blood from a stone
But I believe
A woman's place is in the homeNow I'm not one to kid you
You know it's not my style
I wouldn't want to hurt you
Not even for a whileI'm all for a woman
Who can make it on her own
But I believe
A woman's place is in the homeOoh, baby I believe, yes indeed I do
A woman's place, a woman's place
A woman's place is in the homeWonder what would have happened
Had a woman flattened
Rocky Marciano's noseWould there have been a change of views
Would women no longer be used
The way they seem
To think they're beingI know what you're thinking
And you've every right to moan
But I believe
A woman's place is in the homeHmm, baby I believe, yes indeed I do
A woman's place, a woman's place
A woman's place is in the homeA woman's place is in the home
A woman's place is in the home
A woman's place, a woman's place
A woman's place is in the homeA woman's place is in the home
A woman's place is in the home
A woman's place is in the home
