Famous Last Words

My new found courage thrives but it is trapped inside my cautious mind, I've got to test my luck and overcome this and maybe if I try I may succeed to fail
But if I don't try I will always fail to succeed and prevail She's going out, to hit the town I'll follow her, I'll track her down Stare through the window there she is She's intimidatingly perfect but did my eyes deceive me?
She was not alone

(CHORUS)

This Cannot be
This Cannot be, it must be a dream
more like a corrupted nightmare
can't bare this harsh reality
this can't be the end of my story
She's my only destiny
Can't be the end of my story
We must create, our own fate
I'll take her heart before it's too late

Mysterious, unwelcomed guest...
Who the fuck is this?!
she was not alone (x2)
He strokes her hair he moves in close she doesn't care?!
I'm losing hope
Pretentious Fuck!
expired luck
I'll finish him!
Pretentious Fuck!
disgraceful, vile, evil, worthless piece of shit..
Pretentious Fuck!
Who the fuck is this?!

(CHORUS)

This Cannot be
This Cannot be, it must be a dream
more like a corrupted nightmare
can't bare this harsh reality
this can't be the end of my story
She's my only destiny
Can't be the end of my story
We must create, our own fate
I'll take her heart before it's too late

Stop this now
I can't handle this shit anymore
He is to blame for all this pain I'll take him six feet under the fucking ground maybe he'll get crushed and never be found maybe he will fall, or maybe he will drown either way I'm sure to take him down!

(CHORUS)

This Cannot be
This Cannot be, it must be a dream
more like a corrupted nightmare
can't bare this harsh reality
this can't be the end of my story
She's my only destiny
Can't be the end of my story
We must create, our own fate
I'll take her heart before it's too late (x2)
