

Heart The Hunter

Great White

had a woman, gave her all of my lovin'
Gave her all that I had Kinda' woman she could make you believe her
Nothing's gonna go bad Took awhile, and all the hurtin'
Since she left and went away
Behind her smile though I can't be certain
But I thought I heard her say My heart's a hunter
And love is a loser's game
My heart's a hunter
And love is a loser's game Little baby I won't give ya no heartaches
I won't give ya no pain
Sweet little darlin' can't ya see what is comin'
Cause ya know me by name Used to be when I was a child
I thought lovin' should be free
And it's so hard to be reconciled
That ain't the way it oughta be It's only lovin' when she's gone and she's left ya
It goes to show it's always something
That I felt when I met ya
It comes and it goes I ride alone tonight
So bittersweet
I took a chance
I tried to love her
Someone whispered her name
Heartbreaker
