We are the chosen

We are the few

We were sent here

To give guidance to our youthWe are the future

We are the face

So let's come together

Be as one todayWe did it all for love

Just so you could feel the loveLove is a fire

Love is a flame

We are sent here

To be tested once againSettle persuasion

This is the time

As we come together

One step out of lineWe did it all for love

Just so you could feel the loveWe are the chosen

We are the few

We were sent here

To give guidance to our youthYou are the future

You are the face

So let's come together

Be as one todayWe did it all for love

Just so you could feel the love

We did it all for love

Just so you could feel the love
