Ghost

Zach Blaustone

"Ghost"- Zach Blaustone Lyrics

I feel you so close,
I feel you so near,
But now that you chose to run,
I see it so clearly,
Im seeing your ghost,
Im seeing you here,
But that it's been two years and all,
Nothing to fear,

Cause you're not coming home,
You're not coming here,
September's come and go,
November's here to steer,
Me away,
Away,
Away,
From all these years,

Cause you've gone too far away from me,
Oh you've gone too far away for eyes to see,
And it breaks my heart to watch you leave,
Oh it breaks my heart to see you free,
Oh~oh

Ive been hearing your voice,
As crazy as that seems,
Ah, but since I've made this choice to stay,
I know that i am dreaming,

Im dreaming you close,
Im dreaming you near,
Yeah,
But a dream is just a dream,
I know I don't want you here,
So please don't come home,
Please don't come near,

September's come and go,

November's here to steer,
Me away,
Away,
Away,
From all these years you've stayed,

Oh you've gone too far away for eyes to see,
And it breaks my heart to watch you leave,
Oh it breaks my heart to see you free,
So free indeed,

But ill find another way,
Oh ill find another day,
Without you,
-out you,
Oh ill dine another day,
Oh ill die some other way,
Without you,
Without you,

Oh ill be a better man,
Oh ill find some place to bang my head without you,
Without you,
Without you,
Without you,
Oh yeah,

You've gone too far away from me,
Oh you've gone too far for eyes to see,
And it breaks my heart to watch you leave,
Oh it breaks my heart to see you free,
Oh~oh
