

Giants

Sebastian Kole

Honestly, I was afraid
To ever give my heart away
But ain't it funny how things change?
When I lost it all, I found my world in you again
So I'll take all the stars from the sky
I'd rob the night, bottle their light
And give it to you, we'll be alright
Stand through the fight, maybe we'll prove
That we are giants, giants, giants
Oh, we are giants, giants, giants
Oh, we are giants, giants, giants
Yeah, we are giants, giants
And we will not be moved
We'll be forever
Oh, be together
Oh, we will never
We will not be moved
We'll be forever
Oh, be together
Oh, we will never
We will not be moved
There's no place I'd rather be
Than have you lying here with me
There are those who disagree
Oh, but who cares? 'Cause I've got you here and you're all I need
So I'll take all the stars from the sky
I'd rob the night, bottle their light
Oh, give it to you, we'll be alright
Stand through the fight, and baby, we'll prove
That we are giants, giants, giants
Oh, we are giants, giants, giants
Oh, we are giants, giants, giants
Yeah, we are giants, giants
And we will not be moved
We'll be forever
Oh, be together
Oh, we will never
We will not be moved
We'll be forever

Oh, be together
Oh, we will never
We will not be moved, oh
We'll be forever
Oh, be together
Oh, we will never
We will not be moved
We'll be forever
Oh, be together
Oh, we will never
We will not be moved
The feeling is right
We're bigger than life
Why try to fight it?
You're all I need
And now I can see the possibilities
And I like it, no I love it
The way we discovered each other
Uncovered what we are
Beauty behind the scars
So I'll take all the stars from the sky
Stand through the fight, baby, we'll prove
That we are giants, giants, giants
Oh, we are giants, giants, giants
Oh, we are giants, giants, giants
Yeah, we are giants, giants
We will not be moved
We'll be forever
Oh, be together
Oh, we will never
We will not be moved
We'll be forever
Oh, be together
Oh, we will never
We will not be moved, oh
We'll be forever
Oh, be together
Oh, we will never
We will not be moved
We'll be forever
Oh, be together
Oh, we will never
We will not be moved
