Sleeping In The Ground

Blind Faith

I would rather see you sleeping in the ground,
I would rather see you sleeping in the ground
Than to stay around here if you're gonna put me down.
Well, I give you all my money, everything I own.
Well, I give you all my money, everything I own.

Well, some day I'm gonna get lucky, and down the road you know I'm goin'.
Well, I would rather see you sleeping in the ground,
Well, I would rather see you sleeping in the ground
Than to stay around here if you're gonna put me down.

You know I give you all my money, yeah little girl, everything I own.
Well, I give you all my money, everything I own.
Well, today I'm gonna get lucky, and down the road you know I'm goin'.
