overlord

The Gasman

The undying embrace of chaos and war
As the oppressed lie writhing down on the floor
This Babylon of fear that you shall know
To rule and suppress, destroy and overthrow
Kings of this world
The servants shall serve
Slaves never free
Kings of this world all thats to be
All that you hear and all that you see
I am your overlord
Everything above and below
I am your overlord
The exodus of your will and
All that you'll ever know

This brotherhood of snakes shall Rule and control
The corruption of man his fate
And his soul
This flame of black which burns
So bright
For the slaves shall never see
The apocalyptic end of the past
The new world shall forever be
The great conspiracy
The betrayal of god
The fires of revolution
Aimed at the heavens above
