

Love In the Time of Thieves

BT

My love I've been thinking about it
Our hearts can't survive without it
 I came from the dark
 To share in your light
 Sonorous and infinite
You've given me life You came in my life
 And fear subsided
Now I'm so glad that I tried it
 All that is you is my release we found this love and it gave us peace When love arrives, fear subsides when love arrives, fear subsides Your perfect in your temporary form Unique as every rising sun
 My concubine and creation
 You are my great elation
