Forgive Me

:Wumpscut:

A night like other
A night like you know it
You can't see me as I wander
The night you run through
For your life for bodyTo escape from me bitch
To escape from my hateDon't you laugh about me the man
Who's your destiny
To escape from my funDon't you laugh
I get closer to youTo smell you I'm under the spell
Of your beauty of your hair
Of your body so wonderful
And ass you see in the pale light
My white countenance my face
Full of the scars of former deed
I tell you girl take my adviceDon't you laugh about me the man
Don't you laugh
Who's your destinyThe time has come I'm ready
The slaughter screams I'm ready
The time has come I'm ready
No girl screaming anymore in eternity
I never wanted to be your destinyBut you were pretty and so alone
You are so cold now you are dead
Now you're lying here so motionless
In my arms and in my lap
Be glad my child no sorrow anymore
And forgive me for what I've doneAnd forgive me for what I've done
Forgive me for what I've doneForgive me for what I've done
Forgive me
