

Mansions

Matt Champion

TV screen in your living room
Stereo on high
Dreaming of a famous love
Dancing high aboveDriving to your mansion
We can let it all out
I'm too dirty for the sidewalk
You're too clean for the SouthThese people are the same
These houses are the same
I'm glad I'm not alone
I'm glad you're not at home
I'm glad I'm not alone
So many calls to your old cell phone
Too many walks to the park
So many knocks on your childhood home
Too many drags on your [?]No one home for the weekend
Girls [?]
You call me up slowly and hop in your Bentley
Meet me at the hillsDriving to your mansion
We can let it all out
I'm too dirty for the sidewalk
You're too clean for the South
These people are the same
These houses are the same
I'm glad I'm not alone
I'm your not at home
I'm glad I'm not alone
