Wanderlust

Empara Mi

Everbody lies and Everybody cries
Everybody feels as they're on the outside
Sometimes but we're all looking in
We're all looking in

And will I find victory?
Will I find sympathy?
Will I find all the mirror lies with my symmetry?
'Cause we're all looking in
We're all looking in

'Cause I hid the trees from the ground eyes
I pause up face-down and
Nothing really matters
When they're on the outside
When they're on the outside

I'm out back by the glass
I'm filled with wanderlust and I'll leave it all Behind if you make me the Queen of Hearts
'Cause time waits for no man
In this world of clocks

I'm out back by the glass
I'm filled with wanderlust and I'll leave it all Behind if you make me the Queen of Hearts
'Cause time waits for no man
