

Arrest Me

Moonshine Bandits

Go ahead and arrest me, and send me straight to hell.
Tell the sherriff come get me, and take my ass to jail.
Yea I been drinkin on this bar stool, Now all my money is gone.
So go ahead and arrest me, and take my drunk ass home.
No I never thought I'd be settin right here, A Monday morning drinking beer, I've always been a hard workin man.
providing for my family, doin the best that I can.
I know the times are tough for us all.
Hell pour me a drink, of alcohole.
No I never thought I would walk into work.
Early this morning and get treated like dirt.
I been bustin my ass for fifeteen years.
Whats a man gotta do to get respect around here.
Called in by the boss man, He laid me off.
Hell I need a drink, and make it strong.
Go ahead and arrest me, and send me straight to hell.
Tell the sherriff come get me, and take my ass to jail.
Yea I been drinkin on this bar stool, Now all my money is gone.
So go ahead and arrest me, and take my drunk ass home.
