Do You Remember?

John Vanderslice

do you remember the man? standing in front of the tanks that rolled on tianamin square he just stood thereI heard the Red Guard went door to door and they found him hiding under the floorboards they yanked him out and shot him twice in the headno he was never caught, they smuggled him out to America he doesn't want to talk about it he's got a new name he lives in maclean, virginiado you remember the man who blocked the caravan trying to talk sense to the machine gunner
he held the ranks
