

Bird Of Freedom

Seal

(Seal)

from the Clockers soundtrackBrother

You can't lose that feeling,

You can't give your life away.Like a bird of freedom,

You ain't got no dues to pay.'Cause they need you bad,

For what they never had.

I want you to know,

That it's alright to flow.

Yes it alright brother.

Yes it alrightNo-nooo.Let your love shine brighly,

Let it burn right through my veins.Brother...Like that bird of freedom,

You ain't got no blues today.Brother...'Cause they need you bad,For what they never had, brother.

I want you to know,

That it's alright to flow.

Baby.Away from everywhere.Ooo, can't you see that they want ya,

They need ya, so bad baby.

For what they never had, now.I want you to know,

That it's alright,No it's alright,

Alright to flow.

Alright...Oh brother, my brother.Away from everywhere, no na na na.Why would I stop you?

Why would I lie?

Why would I break this feeling?

When we're almost there.Away from everywhere.'Cause I wouldn't do this

Lord if I tried.

Why would I break this feeling?

When we're almost there.Away from everywhere.'Cause not in a million,

Lord if I tried.

Why can't I have you near me?

When we're almost there.Away from everywhere.Take to the skies and fly

Can't we have this feeling?

Take to the skies and fly.

Must we stop this feeling?Oooohh...
