

Same Town, New Story

Interpol

they bridged a faded spin?
he was bound for glory she found her wedding man so there she stood by him, through it all and there she stood by him she was pounding on the wall she said "it feels like the whole world is up on my shoulders" feels like the whole world coming down on me and how many bombs went off, cause he just had to play his hand? a rot? is a womans duty, she was always tougher than she said " whos gonna save them from you "
" whos gonna save them from you " i ain't gonna chase another snake until hes gone so there she stood by him, to the law and there she stood by him, and he was down on his knees she said we are still alive we are still alive feels like the whole world is up on my shoulders feels like the whole world is up on my shoulders feels like the whole world is coming down on me pinch her so slowly pinch her so slowly
