

Wrong Again

No Warning

I played your fucking game, now I quit
All those times you gave me shit
Another lie, I never asked for it
All those times you let me down
Do you expect me to come around? I've held it in for far too long
No more of your fucking games
I've learned to deal with the pain
You thought you had me fucking beat
Well, look again, I'm still on my feet You made your mark
And now you're out of line
And now the day has come
And I get what's mine, I get what's mine Too many times you got the best of me
Something like you I could never be
You say I'm going down in these shoes
Living my life with nothing to lose
