

Beautiful Girl

Trin-i-tee 5:7

Say, your such a beautiful girl
Your such a beautiful girl
Alright, that was a good
Let's keep that one, yeah(I'm beautiful)
You're such a beautiful girl
(Ooh, yes, you are, I'm beautiful)
Your such a beautiful girlSkinny legs, press 'n' curl
Who is I in this world?
Trying hard to figure out
Just what this life is all aboutSomebody told me
Honey, smile it's alright you're God's child
Don't let the world define who you are
Shine, baby, shineYou're such a beautiful girl
(Un, huh, like the flowers that bloom)
You're such a beautiful girl
(Un, huh, like the sun in the sky)You're such a beautiful girl
(And like the moon in the night)
You're such a beautiful girlThey say beauty's only skin deep
But, baby, how can you see?
You gotta learn to love yourself
And you'll never never go wrongMothers and fathers, sisters and brothers
We've got a word for you
Take the time out to teach um well
'Cause they're watching you(Said it's alright, honey, you're)
You're such a beautiful girl
(Un, huh, when you smile you light up the world)
You're such a beautiful girl(Always remember you are woa)
You're such a beautiful girl
(You are such a lovely girl)
You're such a beautiful girlYou're such a beautiful girl
You are, you are, you are, you're such a beautiful girl
You are, you are, you are, bright eyes, healthy size
Cute smile and a jazzy style, yeah, yeahYou're such a beautiful girl
(Un, huh, when you smile you light up the world)
You're such a beautiful girl
(Always remember you are woa)You're such a beautiful girl
(You are such a lovely girl)
You're such a beautiful girlI'm beautiful, I'm beautiful
