

Money

Serj Tankian

Money, all for money
Make your money, hide your money
Stuff your money, hump your money
Save your money, all for money Waning patience, people's appetite
Disposition this possession
Dispossessed from all the attractions
Dancing bears of eroticism Self absorbed delusion
Inclusion of dysfunction
I now await the triumphant
Lost baggage, train station The causes of ineptitude
Can be traced to my mandatory noun
The causes of my servitude
Can be traced to the tyranny of Money, all for money
Make your money, hide your money
Stuff your money, hump your money
Save your money, all for money My final surrender
Away from inclusion
I now await the triumphant
Left baggage, train station The causes of ineptitude
Can be traced to my mandatory noun
The causes of my servitude
Can be traced to the tyranny of a noun The causes of ineptitude
Can be traced to my mandatory noun
The causes of my servitude
Can be traced to the tyranny of Money, all for money
Make your money, hide your money
Stuff your money, hump your money
Save your money, make your money, hide your money All for money
Make your money, hide your money
Stuff your money, hump your money
Save your money, all for money
