Relentless

Strapping Young Lad

Bombs away... Bombs away...
All is in its placeIt's time to lay...
It's time to lay... everything to waste
I'll walk away
Won't hesitateIn what I do there's no disgrace
By the way...
Honesty is everything I've ever wanted
Strip it away... today's the day
Calling...Calling you out
Long may we Reign...
Calling!
This is Relentless
This is our World
This is Relentless
