Don't Fight The Feeling

Day26

Tell me how much you've been anticipating (stop)
Now let your body show me how to make good love
Don't have to say a word, girl, you know its on, oh yeah
You already know
Look at the way you move your hips, girl it tells me so
No need to fix your lips just to tell me no
How could you say stop when your body says go, oh
Don't tell me, just show me
Cuz if you say you love me when you touch me
Your body should say so, make you scream oh
Don't ever fight the feeling when you feel it, so baby
Don't tell me, just show me
Cuz if you say you love me when you touch me
Your body should say so, make you scream oh
Don't ever fight the feeling when you feel it
I already know
How good it makes you feel when I touch you there
Show me how much you care, make it crystal clear
Cuz love is just a word, unless you wanna share with me, yea
You already know
Don't have to spread it all around, telling all your friends
So let your love come down time and time again and again
And you'll see that you don't have to worry
I ain't in no hurry, baby

Don't tell me, just show me
Cuz if you say you love me when you touch me
Your body should say so, make you scream oh
Don't ever fight the feeling when you feel it
Don't tell me, just show me
Cuz if you say you love me when you touch me
Your body should say so, make you scream oh
Don't ever fight the feeling when you feel it
I already know
I already know what your body's feenin for girl
Ooo just let me take it slow girl
I already know what your body really needs girl
And when I take it fast I promise I will have you screamin
Yeah (yeah), yeah (yeah), yeah (yeah), oh yeah (oh yeah)

Yeah (yeah), yeah (yeah), yeah (yeah), woooo
Don't tell me, just show me
Cuz if you say you love me when you touch me
Your body should say so, make you scream oh
Don't ever fight the feeling when you feel it
Don't tell me, just show me
Cuz if you say you love me when you touch me
Your body should say so, make you scream oh
Don't ever fight the feeling when you feel it
I already know
I already know
