

Don't Cry Your Heart Out

Amy Diamond

when she talks to you, you never care to listen and she walks with you, your eyes are always drifting.
and you dont call her back, but proimse with that.

Whats that get to say about you.

When she calls for help, you rather call her helpless cause shes there for you, why are you so selfish
And you lie to a face, with a smile on your face

Whats that get to say about you.

So dont cry your heart out,
when shes nothing but a memory

Your heart out
cause your tears aint worth a penny Ohh my brother, brother
you will soon discover whats like to have blues when no one crys for you.

Tell me who are you To shame man, mistreat her Cause not man, and are not one neither and you need to be check
If you think for a sec.

The karma wont come back to haunt.
Whens she had enough, begging will be useless cause shes all fed up, its to late for excuses and she leaves you behind, with a drop of a dime.

Pretty words wont even matter.
Ohh no!

So dont cry your heart out,
when shes nothing but a memory

Your heart out
cause your tears aint worth a penny
you will soon discover whats its like to have the blues and no one crys for you.

and no one crys, no one crys for ohh no no, not for you.

then you see, then you know that you reap, but you soul so dont weep, no dont go

Cry your heart out.

You dont know whart you got,
till its gone and stop and you think but you not Cry your heart out

So dont cry your heart out!
Dont you cry your heart out

No no no

Ohh my brother, brother
you will soon discover what its like to have the blues and no one cry for you
