Behind Every Good Woman

Tracy Bonham

Many muscles has the man
Each one has a reason
Many women felt his hand
Each one trying to please himImagine one day the tables could turn
Imagine one day the tables would turnBehind every good woman lies a trail of men
Shame, shame for the rooster, hi-five for the hen
Don't ask where she's going, don't ask where she's been
Behind every good woman lies a trail of menSomething tells me that snow white
Smarter than we think
Seven men at perfect height
Seven noses pinkCould happen one day the tables could turn
Imagine one day the tables would turnBehind every good woman lies a trail of men
Shame, shame for the rooster, hi-five for the hen
Don't ask where she's going, don't ask where she's been
Behind every good woman lies a trail of menBehind every good woman lies a trial of men
Shame, shame for the rooster nudge, nudge for the hen
Don't know where where it started or when it will end
Behind every good woman lies a trail of men, a trail of menYou wouldn't believe the mess she's in a trail of men, a trail of men
You wouldn't believe the mess she's inBehind every good woman lies a trail of men
Shame, shame for the rooster, hi-five for the hen
Don't ask where she's going, don't ask where she's been
Behind every good woman lies a trail of menBehind every good woman lies a trail of men
Shame, shame for the rooster, hi-five for the hen
Don't know where where it started or when it will end
Behind every good woman lies
