

Crutch

Set It Off

I'm holding you up keeping you on your feet
Always in the dark even when you're next to meSo how does it feel
To know that I would do anything to break your fall?
How does it feel?
I give everything but I get nothing at allYou kill me every time we touch
Baby you use me I'm just your crutch
I don't know how long I can hold you up
You got me running out of love
Baby you use me I'm just your crutch
I don't know how long I can hold you upThere's only so much of the weight I can take Leaning on me till I bend and I breakSo how does it feel
To know that I would do anything to break your fall?
How does it feel?
I give everything but I get nothing at allYou kill me every time we touch
Baby you use me I'm just your crutch
I don't know how long I can hold you up
You got me running out of love
Baby you use me I'm just your crutch
I don't know how long I can hold you upWhere you where you gonna be?
Where you gonna be when I need somebody?
Where you where you gonna be?
Where you gonna be when I need somebody?
Where you where you gonna be?
Where you gonna be when I need somebody?
Where you gonna be when I need somebody?
Where you gonna be when I need somebody?
Where you gonna be when I need somebody?You kill me every time we touch
Baby you use me I'm just your crutch
I'm just your crutchYou kill me every time we touch
Baby you use me I'm just your crutch
I don't know how long I can hold you up
You got me running out of love
Baby you use me I'm just your crutch
I don't know how long I can hold you up
