Run 2 U

Jewel

Hey little baby, little lover boy
Get in my arms, give me some joy
I want to hold you tonight
It'll be alright
Cause the night is long and I hunt for you
In this darkest hour, where have you gone 2?
Won't you come 2 my side
I need you tonight

[Chorus]

Run 2 me, I'll run 2 you
Let me crash into you
Run 2 you, you'll run 2 me
I alone can love you you belong 2 me

I need you for dark reasons, dear
For greed and lust and seed and fear
For all the songs that I can hear when you are near Cause the places I've been, well I'm trying 2 forget
But the further I run, well, the further I get
But with just one kiss, you know that it do not exist
So won't you dance for me beneath the street lamp's light
With your arms stretched out, baby, drunk on wine you know it feels so good, like it should, just 2 laugh
I knew that it would

[Chorus]

La, la, la, close your eyes
La, la, la, it's a lullaby

[Chorus]
