Heel Over Head

Puddle of Mudd

Don't you walk out that door
Don't even pet the dog on the floor
Just take your things in the yard
And throw your keys anywhereAfter all the things I've done for you
Year after year after burnin' year
I'm sorry for wastin' all your time
And I'm sorry for losin' all my life
And I think that I'm lost and hard to find
But I feel like I'm livin' a darkness lieAnd I'm heel over head
Jet black skies is painted white again
And I'm heel over head
Leave my eyes in the clouds againYou don't see me at all
You don't see me at all
You don't see me at all
You don't see meDon't you walk away from me
I'm givin' up everything
But I think that I'm rippin' apart at the seams
And I'm findin' it hard, hard to believeAnd I feel like I'm livin' inside a dream
And no one believes and no one sees
That I'm sorry for wastin' all your time
And I'm sorry for losin' on the lineAnd I'm heel over head
Jet black skies is painted white again
And I'm heel over head
Leave my eyes in the clouds againYou don't see me at all
You don't see me at all
You don't see me at allYou don't see me or hear me or touch me or bring me
Or think that I'm rippin' apart at the seams
You don't see me at all
You don't see me at all
You don't feel me or touch meI'm sorry and I'm sorry for wastin'
I'm sorry and I'm sorry for wastin'
I'm sorry and I'm sorry for wastin'
I'm sorryAnd I'm sorry you don't see me
Hear me, touch me, bring me
Think that I'm rippin' apart at the seamsYou don't see me, hear me, touch me, bring me
Think that I'm rippin' apart at the seams
You don't see me at all
You don't see me at all
You don't see me at allYou don't see me or hear me

You don't see me or touch me
You don't see me or hear me or touch me or bring me
Or think that I'm rippin' apart at the seamsYou don't see me at all
You don't see me at all
You don't see me at all
You don't see me at allYou don't see me or hear me
You don't see me or hear me
You don't see me at all
