

Return to the Fourth World

Sinergy

For what once was a dream you have made reality this evening our passion will end in blood the sweetest red potion Release through my blade only your veins possess feel intense sensations Drink of the wine sweet red divine fiery temptation tonight rejoice with the pain
I pierce the skin of thee
Burning obsession
and uniting in our sorrow
pouring out like the rain this salvation I desire thawed is the frozen past As the taste strokes my tongue sweeping over me Your scars a memory of my affection the deeper the wound the fonder my love
I pierce the skin of thee
Burning obsession
this salvation I desire pouring out like the rain solo (A. Laiho) I pierce the skin of thee Burning obsession
pouring out like the rain
