Clone

Rhett Walker Band

Dirty battles and weak castles
Hate running through fingers that flip through Bibles
And all for our own agenda
Hidden under a smokescreen titled, â€œDo this in Remembranceâ€•

Oh, and this we all know
Yet we take step after step just praying but never saying â€œNoâ€•
While dollar signs cloud our eyes, we fill the seats of the auditorium
When will we remember itâ€™s neither I nor you that can save us from our self?

Itâ€™s only the truth of Jesus

Not I, nor you,
Itâ€™s only the truth

(Play it again)

One, two, three

Oh, you done opened this cage, done set this prisoner free
Oh, if you listen to me Iâ€™ll promise you one thing
Itâ€™s been a long time coming now Iâ€™m starting to tear down everything
But just as sure as the rising sun thereâ€™ll be nothing left but me

Oh, youâ€™re a robot, you know not, yeah youâ€™re nothing but a clone
Think nothing for yourself, just ride on what we brought
You call yourself an outlaw but never fight for anything
You sit and wait for them dollar signs selling what we do not need

Well I canâ€™t stand for nothing like youâ€™re paid for
I canâ€™t go on and hold in everything
Cause we all know thereâ€™s more that we are made for
I canâ€™t go on and not do anything, I ainâ€™t your clone

You, you brought me to your world for all I had to give
To tell everyone what itâ€™s like to really live
Just donâ€™t start talking about real problems or how it really is Well I ainâ€™t ever been like that, and I guess I never will

Well I canâ€™t stand for nothing like youâ€™re paid for

I canâ€™t go on and hold in everything
Cause we all know thereâ€™s more that we are made for
I canâ€™t go on and not do anything, I ainâ€™t your clone

And I canâ€™t stand for nothing like youâ€™re paid for
I canâ€™t go on and hold in everything
Cause we all know thereâ€™s more that we are made for
I canâ€™t go on and not do anything, I ainâ€™t your clone, oh I ainâ€™t your clone

Oh yeah
Oh I ainâ€™t your clone, yeah
