

Brand New Face

The Blue Dogs

I stare out my window
I wonder if you know
The sound of the sea
Do you ever think of me?
We used to share love
Do you ever think of What happened to me? Everybody's a brand new face to me
Everything is something new to me I hear your voice and i turn slow little did i know
My mind plays tricks on me
So i turn back around
Put one of two glasses down
Shame on me
Everybody's a brand new face to me
Everything is something new to me
All i want is to find you out
And turn you on to what i'm all about i know where i am but all i see
Is the back of you getting further from me
I go to the phonebook
I take a fast look
Are you in town? are you somewhere around?
I go to the window
I wonder if you know
What i'm doing now?
Everybody's the same old face to me
Everything is nothing new to me
All i want is to feel you out
And turn you on to what we're talking about
All i want is to feel you out
And turn you on to what we're all about
