Next Man

Sabrina Starke

Next ManWe are all valid.
And worthy of our dreams.
And capable of trying to achieve them.We are all gifted.
And magical at least.
Sublime and great is all that we can be.We are all beautiful, individuals.
And all with an unique identity.In search for more loving, deeper meaning.
In that bigger cause we all hope to believe in.Chorus:
Sometimes its hard to, understand.
Truth and the mystery, go hand in hand.
We all search for love, burdens and pain.
Your not different, you're the same.
As the next man.We make excuses.
We set aside our dreams.
Eventhough we can be anything.We think we're not worthy.
We all seek happiness.
And in between we're lost and confused.We can be sinners. Not free of judgement.
Won't look deeper than the human eye can see.Know that the universe is here to provide love.
And that's what you should take notice of.Chorus:
Sometimes its hard to, understand.
Truth and the mystery, go hand in hand.
We all search for love, burdens and pain.
Your not different, you're the same.
As the next man.Bridge:
The image of a stranger.
Much closer like your neighbour.
So you see that comparison is real
Look for your marbles, your treasures.
Pursue that legend.
