Within My Reach

Carpark North

Look here
Look in my hand
This leaf I found is grand
I picked you up and let you go
And I'll followYou are my hearts belief
My wonder, my relief
Now I can hear the angels breathe
And I'll follow
But I'm in over my headIf you land within my reach again
Would I have the strength to carry you?
And if you land within my reach again
I would hold your weight in my armsYou seem too sad to try
You're lost in old goodbyes
I need to be there when you fall
And I'll followWe're cutting through the dark
Ignited with a spark
The sky is closer than you are
Still I'll followIf you land within my reach again
Would I have the strength to carry you?
And if you land within my reach again
I would hold your weight in my arms
