Try

Natasha Bedingfield

Don't throw it away just because it's broken
'Cause anything can mend
Don't call it a day just because the road's blocked
Doesn't mean we're at the endIf it's something you love, you don't leave it
If its' something you care for, you keep itIt's never too far, it's never too late
To tell someone, "You're the only one"
And even if it's hard, it's never goodbye
If you love someone then you try, try, try, tryDon't jump the train just because it's not moving
Doesn't mean we're on the wrong track
I'll always remain even if the wind blows
Just please remember thatIf it's something you love, you don't leave it
If it's something you care for, you keep itIt's never too far, it's never too late
To tell someone, "You're the only one"
And even if it's hard, it's never goodbye
If you love someone then you try, try, try and you tryI won't let go, I won't give up
And if we fight, we'll only fight for us
Might not have much but what we've got
Is more than enough 'cause what we've got is loveIt's never too far, it's never too late
To tell someone, "You're the only one"
Oh, and even if it's hard, it's never goodbye
If you love someone then you try, try
Then you tryAnd even if it's hard, it's never goodbye
If you love someone then you try, try, tryDon't throw us away just because we're broken
'Cause anything can mend
