

Everyone I Love

Justin Currie

Tonight I?m gonna hurt everyone I love,
Just to see if they love me
I?m gonna run around,
Running off my mouth, be as cruel as I can be
Tonight I?m gonna hurt everyone I love,
Give my bitter side a little exercise
Let my loathing out for a walkabout,
Give my jealousy a little company
Tonight I?m gonna hurt everyone I love,
?Cause I?m tired of trying to keep this stuff inside of me

Tonight I?m gonna say what I never say,
I?m taking everybody down, like Dr. Frankenstein,
I?ll let the monster walk from the cellar to the town
Tonight I?m gonna say what I never say,
Every negative I can hit them with,
Every accolade?ll be a hand grenade,
Let my mission be catastrophe,
Tonight I?m gonna hurt everyone I love,
?Cause I wanna wreck what everyone expects from me

Tonight I?m gonna hurt everyone I love,
Just to see if they love me
I?m gonna blow apart the phony brotherhood
And let the ugly truth run free
Tonight I?m gonna hurt everyone I love,
I?m gonna say the words nobody ever does
Let my emptiness have itself a blast,
Let it root around digging up the past
Tonight I?m gonna hurt everyone I love,
?Cause I?m tired of trying to keep this stuff inside of me

I?m tired of trying to keep this stuff inside of me
Yeah, I?m tired of trying to keep this stuff inside of me
