I Am Kloot

Hey, could you stand another drink
I'm better when I don't think, seems to get me through
Say, do you wanna spin another line, like we had a good time
Not that I need proofSwell, we're living in a hotel someone's ringing my bell
In a room without a view
Hey, heard you read another book, should I take another look
Who am I without you?Hey, could you stand another drink
I'm better when I don't think seems to get me through
Say do you wanna spin another line, like we had a good time
Not that I need proofSwell, we're living in a hotel
Someone's ringing my bell, in a room without a view
Hey, heard you read another book, should I take another look
Who am I without you?
