I Alone

Tiffany (Girls' Generation)

I will always stand my ground till i'm six feet underground you will always hear my sound
i'm breathing
I will always hold my own, they will judge and throw their stones, they will never steal my soul i'm breathingI am alive, I am alive, I am alivei'll never hesitate, i'll never let you take this kingdom that I made, I alone survive
Don't need you telling me
That my life is just a dream
I'll beat my enemies
I alone survive, yeah, yeah, I alone survive
I will never come undone,
I'm the bullet in the gun,
Hear my heart kick like a drum, still beating,
Have I fallen in a dream
Full of pain and misery,
I'll fly out and spread my wings while screaming,
I am alive, I am alive, I am aliveI'll never hesitate,
I'll never let you take,
This kingdom that I've made,
I alone survive
Don't need you telling me,
That my life is just a dream,
I'll beat my enemies,
I alone surviveAnd as the sun rises,
I'm faced with these choices,
And it's always up to me,
They won't destroy my dreamsDon't need you telling me,
That my life is just a dream,
I'll beat my enemies,
I alone surviveAnd as the sun rises,
I'm faced with these choices,
And it's always up to me,
They won't destroy my dreamsI'll never hesitate,
I'll never let you take,
This kingdom that I've made,
I alone survive
