Her Black Wings

Danzig

Blackest of the black darker than night come to me my bleeding light
See she comes, she comes now enter oblivion
Here she is harder than life in my arms
See she there entwined with love unclean she is
And she comes down to me, yeah
And she offers me sleep under her black
Under her black wings, under her black
See she comes on the eve of dusk in another form
With a scent of rain upon her neck she brings the lust
Supernatural ceasing never on and on and on
Her stride is such mortals freeze when she walks past
And she comes down to me, yeah
And she offers me sleep under her black
Under her black wings, under her black wings
Under her black wings, under her black wings
See she comes blacker than pitch
Have to make this fallen bitch all I want all I crave demoness calls
The bitch is come for those who wait cross the breach in hell
See she is bedeviled with breasts enchantment on legs
And she comes down to me, yeah
And she offers me sleep under her black
Under her black wings, under her black wings
Under her black wings, under her black wings
Under her black wings, under her black wings
Under her black wings, under her black
