

Baseball

Zimpala

when i feel the morning grass i let down my guard because love comes from the dirt in my own backyard every time i think i've finished being young i catch myself having fun but the moment passes as the sun moves on so i turn myself back to you on a diamond in the rough i spent my better years i still see her in the crowd with diamonds in her ears and it's depressing that i can't forget the tune the organist played la da da da da da da, la da da da da da da...everytime i think i've finished being young
i catch myself having fun
so i turn myself back to you is our season over? no four leaf clover i feel it's getting colder now that it's late fall but can you still remember?
april to november
you and i were members of the best team in baseball so we play our games i've got a girlfriend you've found a new guy but it's not the same and so i drive straight up i-5 to let you know i'm still alive
