

Future

Holly Drummond

VERSE 1:

the night calls to me

it draws me in

it's in the dark where we begin

i'm not afraid of what awaits

i'm not afraid to make mistakes

CHORUS:
the future is unknown

it lies in wait for the one who long ago

swore that they weren't scared of breaking and falling apart and losing control of their hearts

VERSE 2:
but you're in my mind

you never leave

could you be the one to make me believe?

i'm not afraid of loving you

i'm not afraid to lose

MIDDLE:
i'm over

always being afraid

so afraid that i push them all away from me
