Wouldn't Change A Thing

Deep Blue Something

The first thing that I do
When I turn myself to bed
Is pray that I will wake up
An' sleep enters my head
Though I'm not afraid of dyin'
I'm proud of all we've done
But I think I'll go to Heaven
And I'll be the only oneA simple man in a complex world
That's what I've heard them say
But I hear little voices
And they say,"We're okay"
And you say, "I'm a dreamer"
An' we'll never be number one
But I just can't help thinkin'
That the best songs go unsungAn' I wouldn't change a thing
If my mother said to
So why should I change a thing
'Cause a DJ says
I thought that you'd agree
After all we've been through
No, I wouldn't change a thing
If a leper said toNo, I wouldn't change a thing
Because I don't take chances
With something this, this close to me, yeaShe said, "What are you doin' to me, baby?
You don't spend your time like you used to do"
I said, "I don't need that kind of junk
You're just talkin' too much to me
I said, "An' I don't believe in you"
She said, "I want to take you down
And bust you down
And take you down and bust you out
I don't care for one thing about you"
An' she turned around
She kissed me goodbye
I said, "I think I'll be alright without you"'Cause I wouldn't change a thing
If my mother said to
So why should I change a thing
'Cause a DJ says
I thought that you'd agree

After all we've been through
No, I wouldn't change a thing
If a leper said to

Songwriters
PIPES, TODD DAVIDPublished by Lyrics Â© Warner/Chappell Music, Inc. Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/