It's Not Me

Sunnyboys

It wasn't me,
who changed the way,
changed the way that I was kissin' you
It wasn't me that went away
And didn't call to say "I'm missin' you"
Is this the way the story goes?
Am I not the love you chose?
Coz I hate to think that we could end this way
Who's walkin' away?
Not me
Who's takin' your breath?
Not me
As much as I don't wanna see
I know in my heart it's not me
Keep tellin' myself you won't leave
My head doesn't want to agree,
As much as I don't wanna see
I know in my heart it's not me
I didn't see suddenly,
Suddenly your clothes and hair had changed,
Was I a fool, I trusted you
Didn't wanna lose my faith in you
All too soon the seasons changed,
Am I not the one to blame?
I'd really hate to think that love could end this way,
Who's walkin' away?
Not me
Who's takin' your breath?
Not me

As much as I don't wanna see
I know in my heart it's not me
Keep tellin' myself you won't leave
My head doesn't want to agree,
As much as I don't wanna see
I know in my heart it's not me
So what happens to all the plans?
Cause I really don't understand,
Now is there something that I didn't do?

(To give my heart to you)
I can see that you don't wanna stay
But my pain won't stand in your way,
So forgive me, so forgive me,
Cause I'm just a man
Who's walkin' away?
Not me
Who's takin' your breath?
Not me
As much as I don't wanna see
I know in my heart it's not me
Keep tellin' myself you won't leave
My head doesn't want to agree,
As much as I don't wanna see
I know in my heart it's not me
Walking away, leaving this place...
