

Cloud Nine

Haelos

Hey there's a heaven, dissolving.
Some broken universe, unfolding.
Foreign futures by night, built by distant insight. You take power.
You take all of my faith.
There's no sense here.
Just some emptiness, space.
You take power.
You take all of my faith.
Cos there's no waking here.
There's no air in this place. Why did you leave me, alone?
Why did you leave me? (repeats into distortion) Blackness for comfort, reason fading.
Same dark euphoric recall lately
Foreign futures by night, lit by distant insight. You take power.
You take all of my faith.
There's no sense here.
Just some emptiness, space.
You take power.
You take all of my faith.
Cos there's no waking here.
There's no air in this place. Why did you leave me, alone?
Why did you leave me?
Why did you leave me, alone?
Why did you leave me?
Why did you leave me, alone?
Why did you leave me?
Why did you leave me, alone?
Why did you leave me? (repeats into distortion)
