Darkened

Reactive Black

Come on!

When I open my mind
I open the gates
Can't you see the sorrow in my eyes

I see my demon again
I get in motion
And I feel the pain in my heart

My time of confusion - My mind of confusion -
When I reach my aim I reach the point
And I hear his voice in my mind

When I open my mind
I'm crossing the line
And I feel the strength in my soul and fly

Dance, love, hate!
Come on, dance with me, love like me, hate like me!
Come on!

So I open the gates to hell and fly away to live again

Live again - Come on - Live again
My time of confusion, delusion, illusion
Come on! Come on!
